Superintendents Recommendation for Starting the 2020-21 School Year – 6:08 p.m.

Ms. Weaver moved the Board accept the recommendation for the Issaquah School District to start the 2020-21 school year in a fully remote setting. Ms. Moore seconded the motion. After discussion, Ms. Moore amended the motion to include: The fully remote setting would be periodically re-evaluated with the goal of phasing in in-person learning with a priority to students furthest from educational equity. Ms. Weaver seconded the amendment. The amendment was passed. A vote was taken on the motion as amended, and it passed by all board members, with the exception of Ms. Mullings who was called away for a short time.

Prior to the board motion and vote, the Board and Administration discussed the recommendation and heard public input.
