National School Board Association Conference Debrief

Ms. Weaver, Mr. Magendanz, and Ms. Maraldo recently attended the annual conference of the National School Board Association in Chicago. They summarized the conference content and shared conference highlights, information and shared some of their personal insights and experiences at the event.

Draft E-5 Personal Awareness and Expression

The administration presented the third draft of monitoring for E-5 Personal Awareness and Expression. There was considerable valuable dialog around evidence and data that is desirable for future reports if not at this time. A definition of the purpose of electives and how they are used, and should/could be used, was significant.

The administration will prepare another draft of the monitoring report and present it for board action at the April 28th meeting.

Budget Update

The administration summarized the impact on Issaquah School District as a result of proposed state budget anticipated for the Governor's signature by the end of the week. The administration is working to maintain stability from this year to next, and provide the same level of program that is offered to students at this time.

Optimal High School Experience Update

Patrick Murphy, Exec Director of High School Ed, provided an update on the OHSE (Optimal High School Experience) taking place in District high schools. For continual updates visit the District web site at <http://www.issaquah.wednet.edu/district/departments/secondary/OHSE/Default.aspx>.

Capital Projects Update

Director of Capital Projects Steve Crawford presented an update on construction projects district-wide. These ongoing reports are also available on the District web site at <http://www.issaquah.wednet.edu/district/departments/CapProjects/projects/default.aspx>.

Legislative Matters

The Board's Legislative Representative, Director Magendanz, summarized the latest activities related to educational legislation.

Works in Progress

Superintendent Rasmussen briefly noted a variety of works in progress district wide.

Ms. Weaver and Ms. Maraldo volunteered to represent the Board the upcoming exit audit.
