

Issaquah School District
Executive Limitations Monitoring Report

EL-2 TREATMENT OF PEOPLE
Annual Internal – May 13, 2015

The Superintendent certifies that the District is in compliance with EL-2.

With respect to treatment of people, including parents, citizens, and students, the superintendent shall not permit an organizational culture that treats people with disrespect, indignity or discourtesy.

GENERAL INTERPRETATION

I interpret this policy to require a courteous, respectful culture throughout the school district. This is accomplished through policies, leadership practices and communication structures that support and maintain appropriate conditions as noted below.

In a large complex organization like the Issaquah School District, there are countless interpersonal exchanges each day. I interpret compliance as the maintenance of clear expectations and procedures for corrective action, both formal and informal, to be used, if needed, to sustain these values. In short, compliance is the clear, consistent valuing of respect, courtesy and meaningful informational exchange as hallmarks of district life.

Accordingly, the superintendent may not:

- 1. Use methods of managing information that fail to protect confidential information.*

INTERPRETATION

I interpret this to mean that confidential student and staff information will be:

- maintained in secure locations;
- accessed only by authorized persons performing official duties;
- appropriately transmitted to or made available for review by the individuals to whom it pertains, or have a legitimate educational interest including parents with the right of access to their student's records;
- lawfully archived and destroyed;
- Password-protected when stored in electronic formats.

Further, I interpret this to mean that the District complies with the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) by creating and following a system that ensures that individuals who work and learn within the school district will not be photographed without their consent; they will not have personally identifiable information (directory information) published if they request that it be withheld; nor will the media or members of the general public have unauthorized access to the ordinary activities of students and staff except when activities take place in a public setting—for example, a student concert or drama production, athletic competition, or special assembly open to the public.

In this context, I interpret general public to mean non-staff members who have not been specifically authorized or invited to be present by a school or district official.

EVIDENCE

- In 2014 all Principals verified through the annual Board monitoring survey that confidential student records are maintained in secure locations. This includes, but is not limited to, student cumulative folders, emergency cards, teacher gradebooks, guidance team evaluations, special education records, health records, and federal free/reduced lunch applications.
- The Skyward electronic student records system, including Family Access, is password protected. Staff passwords are updated every six months.
- In 2014 administrators and all Principals verified confidential employee records, including personnel and payroll files, are maintained under lock and key; access is by authorized personnel only, or by other individuals under specified requirements in the presence of authorized personnel.
- District archives are managed and monitored by the Chief of Finance and Operations in keeping with applicable law, as determined by State Audit.
- Via registration and first-day packets, families receive notice every year of their right to provide a “FERPA” (Family Education Rights and Privacy Act) letter to their school, which will prevent the District from releasing any identifying information about their student to outside organizations. The notification states that the school has legal authorization to provide “directory information” (including name and photo) to outside organizations for an educational purpose if a student has no FERPA letter on file. Before releasing any information to an outside organization—including the media or photographers—a school or the District will check the Skyward records system to ensure the student has no FERPA letter on file. When time permits or the circumstance is exceptional, schools do provide advance notice to parents and provide an opportunity for them to opt out of a particular situation where directory information may be provided to an outside organization.
- All parents/students have the right to withhold personal directory information from publication. In 2014 all Principals verified that forms for this purpose were distributed this year during student registration.
- Procedures for protecting privacy as external research is conducted in the District are managed and monitored by the Superintendent and designee.
- All request for Public Records are reviewed and processed according to RCW 42.56: Public Records Act

Copies of all principal/building certification check-lists are on file in the Superintendent’s office. For direct inspection of these check-lists please contact the Executive Assistant to the Superintendent; these check-lists provide evidence as needed for EL-10, EL-12 and EL-2.*

. . . the Superintendent may not:

2. Fail to provide a process for the effective handling of complaints.

INTERPRETATION

I interpret this to require two types of hearing-and-response systems: one for community members, parents or students; another for staff. Both should provide an effective means of bringing complaints to the person or persons in charge and receiving a timely response/resolution.

As a practical matter, employee appeal rights are noted, but are not treated in depth in this monitoring report. They are treated in more detail in the monitoring of EL-3: Personnel Administration.

EVIDENCE

Please note: All District policies, procedures, and forms are available on the District Website*

- Community members
 - District policy 4220: Complaints Concerning Staff or Programs is an omnibus provision for any community member to bring a complaint or concern of any type to the appropriate source within the school district. If a complaining person does not find remedies and/or information to be satisfactory, the policy provides for timely, progressive appeals through the administration to the board level. This policy, including procedures and forms, is available to the general public through any school office or the office of the Superintendent.
 - Student Handbooks describe the rights and responsibilities of students in the Issaquah School District, including appeal rights. These are updated annually and distributed to all students/parents, and are available on-line on the schools' website.
 - Special Education Procedural Safeguards clarify the educational, informational and appeal rights of students and their parents. This document is given at least once each year to parents of children who are eligible for special education services; it is given to parents as specified by law and at any other time it is requested.
- Community members, students, and employees
 - Prohibition Against Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying Policy 3207 provides a specific complaint and appeal procedures for all students in the school community who believes he or she has been the target of unresolved, severe, or persistent harassment, intimidation, or bullying. This policy aligns with state law.
 - Civility Policies 3205, 4011, and 5282 provide effective avenues of complaint, and resolution, if found to be warranted, for all members of the school community who believe the District's cultural expectation of civility has been violated.

- Various other federal laws and district policies provide specific complaint and appeal procedures for individuals seeking to remedy particular conditions or decisions. Each ensures specific rights of individuals within the school community:

- Policy 3210: Nondiscrimination
- Policy 5010: Recruitment, Selection, Assignment: Nondiscrimination
- Policy 3115: Homeless Students
- Policies 3212, 5013: Sexual harassment
- Policy 3207: Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (Students)
- Policy 5014: Prohibition Against Harassment (Personnel)
- RCW 28A.85: Gender equity
- Sec. 504 of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
- Policy 5241: Whistleblower Protection
- Policy 5011: Affirmative Action and Employment of Handicapped
- Policy 5224: Staff Participation in Political Activities

- Employees

All Collective Bargaining Agreements are available on the District Website*

- Beyond the provisions noted above, employees who are members of labor organizations have additional grievance rights and procedures outlined in their collective bargaining agreements with the District. There are eight such bargaining units within the Issaquah School District covering approximately 92% of District employees.

... the Superintendent may not

3. Permit any form of illegal discrimination.

INTERPRETATION

I interpret illegal discrimination as acts or omissions by school authorities that create unequal access to District resources on the basis of race, creed, ethnicity, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, or any other class or condition protected by law. Thus, the District must:

- make District opportunities available to all students on a fair basis without regard to the factors or conditions referenced above;
- fairly consider all qualified applicants for employment, assignment, promotion and retention without regard to the factors or conditions referenced above;
- publicize the District's commitment to nondiscrimination and procedures for addressing perceived discrimination within the school district;
- have ready procedures for determining and taking corrective action in the event that discrimination should occur within the district.

EVIDENCE

- Equal educational opportunities and fair treatment of all students are guaranteed in Policy 3210: Nondiscrimination and Policy 3200: Rights and Responsibilities. Procedures for addressing perceived discrimination against students are set forth in 3210P and in student handbooks which are distributed to all students/parents.
- Nondiscriminatory recruitment, selection, assignment, transfer, promotion, retention and training of staff are high priorities of the Issaquah School District as noted in Policy 5010 and its related procedures. These procedures have been developed to achieve equitable solutions to justifiable complaints.
- Nondiscriminatory employment practices are clearly valued and communicated on district application forms and District website:

The Issaquah School District provides equal opportunity in its programs, activities, and employment and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin/language, creed/religion, sex, sexual orientation-including gender expression or identity, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability, age, marital status, honorably discharged veteran or military status, HIV/Hepatitis C status, and provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups. (This statement of practice was updated for 2014-15)

Individuals who have or share in responsibility for hiring are trained in fair, appropriate, nondiscriminatory practice.

- From April 25, 2013 - April 23, 2014 there has been no labor grievance of illegal discrimination from a staff member.
- From April 25, 2013 - April 23, 2014 there was one complaint of illegal discrimination from three families on behalf of their students. The district used an outside investigator who determined that the complaint was unsubstantiated.

... the Superintendent may not:

- 4. Fail to maintain an organizational culture that conforms with the following values:*
 - a. encourages exchange of opinion*
 - b. reasonably includes people in decisions that affect them*
 - c. open and honest communication in all written and interpersonal interaction*
 - d. focus on common achievement of the Board's Ends policies*

INTERPRETATION

I interpret this to require the creation of communications structures that support desired culture. Well-developed communications structures will:

- provide opportunities for meaningful input and feedback on topics of interest and importance to the individuals participating and the constituent groups they represent;
- keep the school district community generally well informed about District programs, decisions and conditions;

- build trust through transparency (access to public information and clear demonstration of reason and process in decision-making);
- maintain staff and community commitment to the Board’s Ends for Students through frequent and relevant interaction and shared decision-making.

EVIDENCE

- Teacher Evaluation Process: ISD and the Issaquah Education Association (IEA) have partnered for a third year to implement the certificated teaching staff evaluation system and to develop and implement professional development for our principals and teachers.
- Principal Evaluation Process: Partnered with principal representatives for the second year in the implementation of the AWSP Principal Leadership Framework and the evaluation process.
- Opportunities for input and feedback: ISD culture is supported by numerous opportunities for community, staff and students to provide input and feedback on matters of interest and importance to them. Prominent examples are listed below:
 - Teaching and Learning Services Advisory Committee (formerly called Teaching and Learning Leadership Team), comprising of IEA members, Principal representative, and TLS administrators meet three times during the year to review curriculum projects and pacing of initiatives. Collaborative problem-solving and planning ahead are included in each meeting.
 - Curriculum Adoptions include opportunities for parents to provide feedback through the adoption websites and during two week parent reviews of adoption materials.
 - Instructional Materials Committee includes parent representatives from each region of the district members, district staff and TLS Leadership. This group reviews all recommendations from adoption committees, hears curriculum challenges and makes final recommendations to be presented to the School Board.
 - Standing committees in all areas of district operations contribute to a culture of collaborative decision-making. Examples include Employee Benefits, Safety, Nutrition, Emergency Preparedness, Health Services, Library/Media, and Counseling Services.
 - Interview hiring teams of staff and/or community stakeholders help express community and district culture and identify candidates who reflect cultural values.
 - Specially chartered Committees ensure that community and staff values are prominently represented in major initiatives (i.e., Bond Committee, Nutrition Advisory, and Safety)
 - Ongoing surveys have maintained an open feedback loop with the community since 2003. These include continuous random-digit dialing of all district residents (including staff) and yearly online parent experience surveys (results are reported in EL 9 Monitoring Reports). Every major curriculum adoption is also preceded by a parent survey.

- Survey responses: In ongoing random digital dial surveys, the District gets high marks for “keeping the community well informed.” More than 9 in 10 parents overall (90 percent) (Fall 2013) give the District an A or B grade for your opinions are welcome and encouraged in this district.
- Annual student interviews and the Bi-annual Healthy Youth Survey for sixth, eighth, tenth and twelfth graders, consistent with FERPA, provide important knowledge of student issues, concerns, and risk behaviors. Results are posted on the District website.
- Special Education Staff Advisory Committee gathers staff perspectives in Special Education communications and problem-solving.
- School Site Councils have been carefully designed to blend community, staff and student perspectives for input and feedback. Site Councils take a different form in some of our schools as PTSA and the principals have combined their meetings
- Regular labor relations meetings between administration and union leaders, and Meet and Confer meeting per IEA Negotiated Agreement provide ongoing open communications and positive relationships for problem-solving and collective bargaining.
- General Information: Major communications strategies are continuously improved based on user feedback. These include the district website, FOCUS newsletter, school E-newsletters, district calendars, school bond election information, District E-News, emergency notification systems, special parent letters, media relations and releases, Social Media, community presentations and activities by district leadership, advisory committees and focus groups, and regular, open agenda community coffees with principals, and support for all teachers to develop and maintain a District endorsed web presence.
- Transparency: Transparency is the honest, continuing effort to help members of the school community (a) obtain and understand non-confidential information, and (b) understand the reasons for and process behind decisions. Primary examples of the district’s commitment to transparency include:
 - The district’s web-based budget process, which keeps budget information, the budget development process, and input opportunities before the general public;
 - Financial Advisory Core Team, facilitating full inquiry into the budget development process by internal and external stakeholders;
 - Web posting of minutes and agendas for the school board and major district committees;
 - Podcast of School Board Meetings;
 - Easy web links to student achievement data for every school and the overall district, including the District Scorecard;
 - Regular budget status reports to the school board in public meetings;
 - Timely, cooperative, and appropriate response to all public records requests;

- Compliance with all state and federal reporting requirements, including ESEA provisions;
- EL-9 Report to Public – a comprehensive online report of Student Achievement, Programs, Services, and Finances updated annually.
- Posting of annual parent surveys, community polling results, school exit surveys, and graduation research reports.

... the Superintendent may not:

5. Fail to provide an open and responsive environment that encourages parent involvement

INTERPRETATION

I interpret this to mean the District must provide meaningful, ongoing opportunities for parents to act as educational partners in their students’ school experience. The District will use valid and reliable method of community-wide data collection to show the degree to which parents perceive they are treated as valued partners in their student’s school experience.

EVIDENCE

The Issaquah School District is exceptionally welcoming to parents who wish to support the learning of their children as individuals, serve as volunteers within the schools or on committees; question, give input, and/or become better informed on topics of interest.

- ISD Random Digital Dial Survey Results (Fall 2013) indicate more than nine in 10 parents overall (95 percent) give the District an A or B grade for your involvement in your child’s education is welcome.
- Every school holds unique activities to incorporate parents into the learning process and school culture. Examples are: Common Core parent/community information presentations, kindergarten classroom and bus rider orientations, transition programs for parents of new middle school and high school students; curriculum nights; invitations to assemblies, concerts and other productions; information meetings for magnet program opportunities; graduation, assessment, and Special Education information meetings.
- Parent resources for supporting student learning in the various content areas are available on the district website.
- Parents are invited to preview, become fully informed about, and give or withhold permission for their students to participate in the FLASH curriculum.
- Parent seminars on topics of special interest are posted as a PTSA link on the district website.
- Electronic student reporting systems (Family Access) give students and parents convenient on-line access to student grades, emergency information, and other data on file.

- Direct access to teachers through District e-mail and District endorsed teacher websites enhances and reduces time lag in parent-teacher communications.
- Issaquah Connect is a web network that will allow teachers to more easily build and maintain web pages with up-to-date classroom information and secure, interactive features such as question forums and wikis that will encourage and foster student and parent involvement.
- Teachers are expected to establish and maintain an up-to-date web presence for communication. This includes contact information, homework/projects with due dates (as applicable), syllabus/classroom/program expectations, and calendar of upcoming events/activities/schedule.
- All special programs (Special Ed, BEL, ELL, Title I, Highly Capable) include parents in advisory committees.
- Parents volunteer thousands of hours throughout the district and schools.
- Principals hold informal coffees and other meetings with parents to answer questions and maintain personal relationships with their parents.
- PTSA support for Issaquah schools is well known across the state. The superintendent and principals maintain regular meetings and cooperative relationships with PTSA leaders.
